

Criteria for International Partner Schools

- The school is implementing Student-Centered Coaching
- The school has worked with our consulting team, or has coaches who have completed the Student-Centered Coaching Instructional Coaching Certification from the University of Wisconsin, Madison
- The school includes leaders in the process of implementation
- The school has aligned coaching and professional learning with the existing mission and vision
- The school is willing to share their work with other interested schools through informal conversations as well as regional or virtual symposiums to share practices for Student-Centered Coaching

If you'd like to be selected as an International Partner School, contact us at info@dianesweeney.com. We'd be happy to discuss options for support.